NEW TESTAMENT RIDERS

CHAPTER 353

President's Message

On my trip to see family over the Memorial Day weekend, I ran across the Grace Riders They are the chapter in Stephenville Tx. I met them at the Black Gold MX track. It's a ministry to reach the youth. This weekend was to help out in one of the local lady's fighting cancer.

We had CHURCH in the mud Sunday morning. It was good to see all the families praying. This may be the only church some of them get. It's a way of life for most of them. Travel from race to race on the weekend camp in the trailer the bikes are in and live in at the same time. Some big 5th wheel to little cargo trailers. But on the track, they are all equal. Just like each person has equal right to GOD. If you are the one in last place or leading the pack you are a GODS people. HE wants all of us to come to HIM. Pray with them in the staging points of life just as they do at the races and know you are loved.

Your Prez. U-TURN JACK

VP's Thoughts for the Day

The CMA SETX State Rally was awesome as usual. My favorite part every year is the Prayer Time we have in the mornings with Eric Story. We prayed for lots of people as usual. Abel kept telling me through the weekend that My Article for the Newsletter is due. I ask him to pester me because I really do not enjoy writing. Thanks Abel! This year the Worship Service Friday night really touched me. I love to watch people deep in Worship. One of the songs we sang was "The Goodness of God." Look it up, listen to it and then picture this: During the line "All my life you have been faithful" people across the pavilion started standing and lifting their arms to Jesus as they sang. As I looked around, I saw one person standing with arms raised that had been in the hospital multiple times this year. This last time they put a DNR (Do Not Resuscitate) Band on her arm. She was not expected to make it through the night. Many friends and CMA Members came and prayed. The next morning, all her numbers were normal and she was sent home. Coincidence or do we serve a Mighty God? Scanning the crowd, there was another man who looked like he came out of the hardcore biker life with arms lifted high. I spoke to him after the service and he was so thankful that the Lord delivered him from his past life. These were only two of the stories I witnessed during the Worship Time. During this song I stepped out of the pavilion, looked to heaven through the oak trees, and quietly listened to the rest of the song. It was after this I came over and hugged Abel and said thanks for the encouragement. After Worship, Lynne Brackeen stood up to address the Members and introduce Steve. In her talk she made the comment that "We are one or two bad choices away from a different life." I am so thankful that we are only one good choice away from a New Life in Christ.

Marilyn's Minutes

Every May 25th we celebrate Memorial Day. We remember those who gave the ultimate in war for us, their life, so that our nation could remain free from oppression and invading armies that want to destroy the American way of life.

Every Easter, we as Christians, celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. However, not just Easter but every day. What Jesus Christ did when He died on the cross, buried, and rose from the dead, won our freedom from sin, death, and defeated the control of Satan over our lives.

Romans 5:8-10 says "God shows His love for us that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by His blood, much more shall we be saved by Him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by His life."

As Christians, we walk in freedom because of what Jesus Christ did for us. We should no longer be slaves to sin but live in the freedom Christ has given us. Galatians 5:1, 16 says 'It was for freedom Christ has set us free, therefore, keep standing firm and do not return to a yoke of slavery Walk by the Spirit and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh."

We make an intentional choice to walk by the Spirit so we do not return to a life of sin and become in bondage to sin. Jesus Christ has won our freedom, walk in the freedom He has given you.

Vickey's Treasury Notes

Just imagine::: Copied

Last Friday, as I pulled into my driveway after work, I got the call every parent dreads.

"He's okay. He's conscious and talking. But your son has been in an accident, and he's being life-flighted."

When I got to the hospital, I found out he had a broken forearm, a broken rib, a partially collapsed lung, and a broken femur. At 22 years old, my son now has hardware in his arm and his leg—and a long road ahead of him.

But none of that was the part that broke me.

My son and I weren't speaking.
We hadn't been for almost a year.

And I almost lost him like that.

No goodbye.
No "I love you."
Just… silence.

That's something I will never be okay with.

Life has taken too many people from me too soon over the past few years. And this—this was the closest I've come to learning that lesson the hardest way possible.

People will hurt you. They'll disappoint you. They'll say things that cut deep. I'm not saying let people walk all over you. But I am saying this:

If they were gone tomorrow… would this still be worth it?

Would the pride, the anger, the distance—would any of it matter if you never got another chance?

Because I almost didn't.

And that reality will sit with me for the rest of my life.

Hold your people close. Say what needs to be said. Swallow the pride that needs to be choked down. Find a way to grow past all the noise. While you still can.

Structure doesn’t take away freedom

We used to pack lunches every morning for our kids… making sure they had what they needed to get through their day.

Somewhere along the way, we stopped doing that for ourselves.

So now I pack my bag before the day gets busy— EVERYDAY!
Water, supplements, something to keep me on track. Because if I don’t prepare ahead of time…
I’ll end up grabbing whatever’s convenient. Healthy doesn’t happen by accident.
It happens on purpose.

And when life gets full, we don’t rise to our intentions……we fall to our systems.
So creating a daily system is so important! My bag goes everywhere I go -

Planning ahead will either make or break you reaching your goals!

I didn’t plan this…but after packing my daily stuff , I love how my Bible reading pointed to the same thing—just from a spiritual perspective.

In Exodus 19–21, God didn’t just bring His people out of Egypt—
He showed them how to live once they were free.

He gave them structure, Boundaries and Direction.

Not to control them…but to protect them.

And it made me think—
we often resist structure, but it’s actually what keeps us steady.

The discipline. The preparation. The daily choices.

Those aren’t restrictions… they’re what keep us from slipping back into chaos.

Structure doesn’t take away freedom— it protects it.
Freedom without direction leads back to chaos. (mic drop!)

Chaplain's Corner

According to Merriam-Webster dictionary, an overcomer is " one who succeeds in dealing with or gaining control of some problem or difficulty". Today we are going to explore some of the rewards of becoming an overcomer of God.

We are going to be looking at a part of the seven letters to the churches in Revelation. Each letter gives a promise to those who overcome.

Rev 2:7b "To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God."

We know from Genesis 3:22 that not only was there a tree of knowledge of good and evil (which was the downfall of man), but there was also a tree of life. Rev 2:7 promises that the overcomer will eat of the tree of life which is Christ, himself that died on the cross for us to give us that eternal life.

Rev 2:11b "He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death."

Those who do not accept Christ as their savior will undergo two deaths. The first death and everyone will experience (outside of the Second Coming of Christ where those who are His will be "changed in the twinkling of an eye") is the physical death. The second death is eternal separation from God, that is eternity in Hell. Those who are over-comers will escape Hell and will enjoy eternal life with God in Heaven.

Rev 2:17b "To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it."

Manna was the bread given to the Israelites during their 40 year wandering in the desert after they left Egypt and before they entered the Promised Land. The "hidden manna" refers to Christ. We take bread during the Lord's supper to remind us of His body broken for us. In paradise, the manna may refer to heavenly foods that we will eat along with Him.

We will be given a new name, just as Jacob, after wrestling with the Angel of God, was given a new name, Israel, and that name will be written on a white stone that signifies acceptance. How great will be to be accepted by God!

Rev 2:26-28 And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations—

'HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON; THEY SHALL BE DASHED TO PIECES LIKE THE POTTER'S VESSELS'—as I also have received from My Father; and I will give him the morning star.

Once Christ has come to reclaim his own, and after the tribulation, He will rule for a thousand years and we will rule beside him during that time. The morning star is Christ. He will be the center point and focus of our lives for all eternity.

Rev 3:5 He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

The white garments speaks of the righteousness of the believer's life due to the sacrifice of Christ on the cross and as such are secure in their salvation. We also see here that Christ will confess us before God and the angels.

Rev 3:12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name.

The pillar is an eternal monument. As we see in various places in the old testament, pillars were erected as a monument to remind those who see them of something that happened there. For example when Joshua led the Israelites across the Jordan on dry ground, he instructed one man from each tribe to take up a stone out of the river bed. Joshua set them up as a monument so they could remember what happened at that location. (Joshua 4)

Rev 3:21 To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

We see here that Christ is the ultimate Overcomer and is reigning with God on His throne. As over comers we will be reigning with Him during the millennial kingdom.

Rev 21:7 He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son.

We will inherit eternal life with Christ in perfect bodies giving Him praise and adoration for all time. God confirms that He will be our God and Father, and we will be His children.

With these verses, we see many of the gifts of being an overcomer. You may be asking, "How do I become an overcomer?"

1 John 5:4-5 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This verse tells us that the victory that allows us to overcome is our faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Think on these things, my friends. Are you an overcomer? Do you truly believe and follow Christ and Lord and Savior. If He is truly your Lord, you cannot say "no" when He gives you something to do. If you say "no", then He is not your Lord.

In Him

CMA's Monthly Bible Study

"For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires" (Hebrews 4:12, NLT).

Thank you for dedicating your time to studying God's Word! In the ministry of CMA, we believe that all the time we spend engaging with the Scripture together has great benefit for our lives, our chapters, and the still unreached motorcyclists we are called to serve. Throughout 2026, CMA's monthly Bible studies will be focused on evangelism, specifically highlighting God's calling for CMA members to be His light in the motorcycling world. We pray the Lord will bless each moment you spend in His Word. We also pray that as you continue to study God's Word, your life will be transformed and you will continue to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18a, NLT).

HUMBLE AND GENTLE

SCRIPTURE READING:

Ephesians 4

"Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love" (Ephesians 4:2, NLT).
As members of God's family, we are to love each other unconditionally. It is through this love that we will help one another grow in our faith and our calling. This love will allow us to work with others' faults and keep us united in Spirit and in peace. When we mature together in the body of Christ, those outside of the body will see the love we have for one another, and we will be more effective at ministering to the lost.
A delicate area and one that can be challenging is when we "speak the truth in love." We must realize that speaking the truth in love is not a one-way street; we must allow others to speak the truth into our lives as well.

Probably the biggest step in sharing and hearing the "truth in love" effectively is making ourselves vulnerable to others. Many of us are afraid to open our lives to others because we fear being hurt or used. Most of us want to be accepted and loved for who we are, and opening up our lives can reveal struggles or feelings that we wish didn't exist. The truth is, many of us face the same feelings or similar struggles!
Through our unconditional love for one another, we can make allowances for the struggles and faults we all face. This love allows us to "speak the truth" in ways that help each of us grow toward the standard Christ has modeled for us. Remain "humble and gentle" and see how God will use you to reach others.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

What parts of Ephesians 4 seem particularly applicable to your own personal life? To your local CMA chapter?
Can you list times in your life where you have completely opened yourself to others?
How can you use the struggles in your life to encourage and help others?
How does a "humble and gentle" approach change outcomes in relationships?

PRAYER:
Heavenly Father, help me to be open and transparent in my life so I can be helpful to others. Amen.
