CHAPTER 353

President's Message

GODS DIRECTION.

Sometimes we get on a path and think. Ok this is it. God has set me on this path for a reason. Then change happens and we think 🤔, Ok what happened. Did I do something wrong did I miss something?

GOD can change our direction at any point along our journey. Because He wants you to do something for Him.

After picking Kathy up from the airport we stoped ate supper and on the way out we stoped in front of the truck for a minute. Then this homeless guy (Rick) I think was his name. says do you have a couple bucks for food? We had the opportunity to give him a little money but more important we got to talk about JESUS. and sobriety. The two things I know a little about.

God put us there at that time for that reason. I got to tell him I am 25 years sober and he said he was 90 days sober then slipped.

We got to share with him how JESUS was the answer and the way to a better life and asked if he knew JESUS he said yes so the next question is can we pray for you? He said yes. In front of the doors we stoped and prayed for him and a another guy seen it and asked for a quarter. Then Rick said he gave me all he had but I'll give you one of mine. I said no I got it.

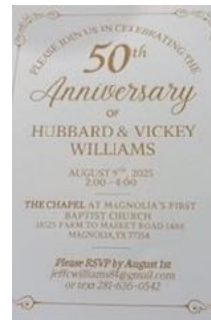

You see it's not about the money a quarter or a couple bucks. The point is JESUS made this happen in His time for His reason. The question is, are you going to be JESUS to someone today or are you so set on your path you forget who put you there.

Remember JESUS can change your path at anytime so you have the choice be the good neighbor on the side of the road or to be the one to pass him by?

Your Prez. U-TURN JACK

VP's Thoughts for the Day

John 3:16 has always been a favorite verse. You can get very deep in studying it.

As a kid at Pineview Bible Chapel they had a tract wall where various tracts were displayed for us to take home and then pass out. This was always my favorite tract.

Marilyn's Minutes

Psalms 100 says,

"Make a joyful noise to the Lord all the earth!

Serve the Lord with gladness!
Come into His presence with singing!

Know that the Lord, He is God! It is He who made us and we are His;

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise!

Give thanks to Him; bless His name!

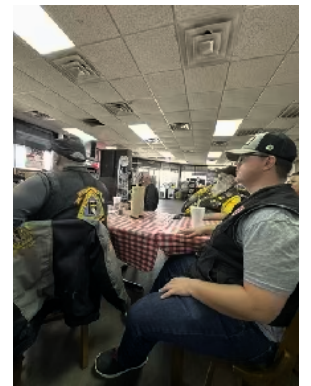

For the Lord is good; His steadfast love endures forever;
And His faithfulness to all generations."

As the people of God we are to praise God. Luke 19:40 says, "I tell you, if those keep quiet, the stones will cry out." May we never let rocks do the praising we are supposed to give to God. Our praise should not be contained to Sunday morning. It should be part of the air we breathe and we praise Him all day long. He is worthy! Give a Hallelujah and praise to God!

Vickey's Treasury Notes

Sally and Jack

Sally and Jack went to their grandpa's house to visit. While they were there, grandpa took them out to teach Jack how to use a slingshot. Jack was really good at it. After a little while, grandpa went off to do some chores, and by accident Jack threw a rock with the slingshot and hit one of grandpa's ducks in the head, and killed it.

Now Sally being Sally said "oh I am going to tell" Terrified Jack cried, "Please don't tell. Sally agreed and they went back to the house.

When the kids arrived, grandma announced that she and Sally would clean up the house. With a sly look, Sally said, grandma Jack would love to do the dishes, wouldn't you, Jack? Jack does not mind doing the dishes. In fact Jack, tell grandma how much you love doing the dishes. Jack said "oh yeah, yeah grandma I love doing dishes.

Determined to get a bunch of housework done, grandma continued, Well then Sally we're going to vacuum the floor.

"Grandma," Sally replied, "let me tell you about Jack and vacuuming. That boy is a natural-born vacuum person. Come on Jack, tell grandma how much you love to vacuum" Grimacing, Jack said through his teeth, "Grandma I really like being a vaccumer. Yeah, I really do"

"Well then we're going to dust the house." "Oh dusting the house grandma? Jack tells her how much you love dusting the house."

Jack was boiling by now. "Yeah I like dusting the house" He knew he was trapped, not only now but for the rest of his life.

Later that day, well after Jack had done more than his share of the chores assigned to both grand-children, grandpa said, "Jack, come here. I saw that little episode earlier today. Let me tell you something, Jack. I know about the duck, but I didn't say anything, because I wanted to see how long you were going to let Sally make you her slave. All you had to do to keep her from holding you hostage was to tell me what you had done.'

God knows that you've killed the duck. You don't have to hide it. Satan wants you to remember that you killed the duck and holds you hostage to your guilt. By confessing our sins to God and allowing Him to forgive us, we can release Satan's hold on us.

Psalms 32:5 I acknowledge my sin to you and did not cover my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord" And you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Tragic Loss In The Hill Country

It is so tragic how the lives of dozens were lost in the Texas flood at the Christian summer "Camp Mystic". I have seen many say, "how could God allow such a thing? Those kids were there for Him, and He let this happen?"

All I can think of is... in these moments, we are hit in the face with a cold reminder that we are truly in a fallen world. A world full of tragedy, pain, and heartbreak.

And the God of the Bible never hides this fact. Job lost it all - his family, health, wealth... and even though he regained his wealth, what about his family who died?

The only way Job was able to move forward was through hope. See, Job's hope was never in this world, it was in the one thing God DOES promise: RESURRECTION. He knew it was THEN that he would be fully restored.

Jesus also demonstrated this. His life was full of sacrifice, brokenness, and ultimately... a painful death. Yet, He demonstrated the Hope of God through RESURRECTION!

So friends, in these tragic moments... yes we cry, we mourn.... but not as those without hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13). Christians can grieve, but their grief is tempered by hope of the resurrection and reunion with loved ones who have died.

"In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world!"

In Jesus, even through pain, we can hope in Resurrection... for as He was raised, so will be those in Him. Let us keep praying for All grieving this tragedy, and that all affected may remain hopeful in God's promise of resurrection: the day those children will be reunited with their loved ones.

Road Captain Roadmap

Motorcycle riding offers freedom and adventure, but it also requires responsibility. Safety must always come first, from wearing proper gear like helmets, gloves, and jackets to maintaining your bike and staying alert on the road. Riding defensively and respecting traffic laws protects both you and others. Beyond safety, motorcycling can also be a powerful way to share Christian fellowship. Riding together builds community, strengthens friendships, and provides opportunities to encourage one another in faith. Fellowship on the road reminds us that life, like riding, is best when we travel with others who share our values and support us through challenges. Whether on long trips or short rides, Christian Motorcyclists can reflect Christ's love by their actions, prayers, and service. Safe riding combined with genuine fellowship creates a meaningful journey that honors both God and the road ahead.

The plan for our fellowship ride is to go back to Murphys Steakhouse out in Winchester. It's a nice ride and great food, but may be on the longer side of our usual rides. The ride should be just shy of 2 hours going out through Fayetteville and La Grange.

When we accepted the call of God to become members of CMA and wear the CMA logo, our faith in Christ became visible for all to see. Our bright gold patch with a cross and Bible in the center are unmistakable – not easily hidden. We are proclaiming that we know the path to a relationship with Christ.
